March 31, 2020

Marriott has experienced a fairly significant data breach.

Any clients impacted should be receiving an email from marriott@email-marriott.com today, but Marriott has also provided the full scope of details, support information and FAQ's - <https://mysupport.marriott.com/>

- 5.2 million Marriott guests' information wasn't secured properly for more than a month in 2020 and was possibly accessed by unauthorized persons.
- The data that was possibly accessed an outside party includes contact info and loyalty account numbers, but not sensitive details like passport information or credit card numbers.
