The Ultimate Resource for
Today's Connected Traveler.

We are open for business and thankful for your kindness –

These last few weeks have been a whirlwind for the travel industry.

We know you are getting exhausted with all the emails and news reports, but we just wanted to send you a note to THANK YOU for your business and friendship. I am so proud to share that our amazing team is still together and committed to beating this economic storm and providing you with the outstanding service our company is known for and committed to the past 30 years.

One last comment. Many people have called to ask if we are O.K. financially. We are so thankful that over the years we have been able to build our company with ZERO debt and also access to additional lines of credit if needed. Bottom line: We are blessed with an amazing staff, wonderful customers, and the financial security to weather this storm.

Sending well wishes to protect each one of you, your family, and co-workers from this health and economic virus monster.

Thankful for your kindness,

Kelly
